City of Newburgh to hold Flea Market at Newburgh Landing Oct. 21 During Visit of Tall Ship Lynx

Attention bargain shoppers! The City of Newburgh will hold a Flea Market Sunday, Oct. 21 from 10 a.m.- 4 p.m. at Unico Park on the Newburgh Waterfront. The Committee is raising funds for the 25th annual International Festival which will take place over Labor Day Weekend, 2013.

In addition to antique & collectibles, craft vendors and artists are welcome for the low admission price of $25 per 10 x 10 space. Applications will be available on the City website, www.cityofnewburgh-ny.gov, or by calling (845) 569-7354 or (845) 569-5429.

“We hope to make the 25th annual International Festival an extraordinary event,” said Deputy Mayor Regina Angelo. She added, “Stay tuned- we are working to return the festival to the Newburgh waterfront.”

Visitors to the Flea Market will also have a chance to tour the privateer, Lynx which will make a return visit to Riverfront Marina by Billy Joe’s Restaurant from Thursday, Oct. 18- Sunday, Oct. 21. For information on tours, please visit www.privateerlynx.org or call (866) 446-5969.
